No. 7731: FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE I - THEORY

Five WEDNESDAYS 7:00-9:00 p.m. Starts February 11th, Room 124B - $59. Learn what they didn't teach you in college - the basic skills required to become financially secure. You can accumulate $1 million in 12 to 18 years using proven, conservative savings and investment techniques. Develop your own "road map to riches". With proper planning, saving is much easier than you think - especially when you "pay yourself first". Our forms make it easy for you to plan your way to wealth.

Myron retired at 38 and for the last 35 years has been showing others how they can do it, too! He has an MBA with honors from the University of Chicago, plus he is a CPA, RIA and an Illinois real estate broker. He is a multi-millionaire who can show you how to do it too! No class March 19 and March 26. Book included.

No. 7732: FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE II - PRACTICE

Five WEDNESDAYS 7:00-9:00 p.m. Starts April 1st, Room 124B, $59.00. Once your financial goals are set and your savings program is under way, learn how to get an acceptable after-tax return on your investment capital while keeping risk to a minimum. Course also covers stocks, margin accounts, mutual funds, bonds, options, commodities, collectibles, real estate, venture capital, running your own business, insurance, living trusts, charitable trusts and estate planning. This is a follow-up to Financial Independence I. Myron was selected as a 2010, 2011 and 2012 5-Star Wealth Manager as seen in Chicago Magazine.

No. 7737: LANDLORDING

Four TUESDAYS 7:00-8:30 p.m. Starts February 10th, Room 106, $49.00. Join Keith's how-to course on successful ownership and operation of residential rental property. Covers managing real estate investments, including tenant selection, advertising, setting rents, lease and rent collection policies and legal rights of landlords and tenants.

If you have even one tenant, you need this class!

This is NOT a licensing class - It's a hands-on property management class to prepare you to manage your own apartments or to qualify you to become a professional property manager. INVESCO manages over 470 apartments in the Northwest suburbs. Free text included.

No. 7738: HOW TO REDUCE YOUR INCOME TAXES

Four TUESDAYS 7:00-8:30 p.m. Starts Feb 17th, Room 105, $39.00. Come learn from Ryan, an experienced C.P.A., many practical ways you can reduce your income taxes, social security taxes and inheritance taxes.

Beginning topics include deductible items and how to substantiate them, dependent allowances, I.R.A.s and I.R.S. audits. Intermediate ideas cover small business, tax shelters, depreciation, home office rules, transferring income to children. More advanced subjects discuss living trusts and estate planning. Something for everyone, from the average taxpayer to the most sophisticated planners.

No. 7758: PURCHASING INCOME PROPERTY

Four THURSDAYS 7:00-8:30 p.m. Starts April 2nd, Room 106, $49.00. Before investing your savings in real estate, invest a few dollars and some time. Learn how to get the most for your money using methods developed by professional buyers. This practical course will show you how to find, evaluate and purchase income property in the Chicagoland area. Guest speakers will include a CPA and a real estate attorney.

Your instructor Keith, a licensed Illinois real estate broker, has been appraising, purchasing and managing multifamily properties since 1981. Free text included.

No. B111-01 FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE (District 211 - Conant H.S. in Hoffman Estates)

Six WEDNESDAYS 7:00-8:30 p.m. Starts February 4, Room 132, $55.00. Financial Independence means having the freedom to retire or not retire. Learn which investments to make and which to avoid. The course will discuss stocks, real estate, IRAs, 401(k)s and other investments. Instructors are Registered Investment Advisors and a CPA. Both were selected in 2014 as 5-Star Wealth managers as seen in Chicago Magazine. They have been showing people the "secrets to financial success" for over 25 years! Books included.
